-o0o-

20 On December 28, 2005, the parties filed a stipulation and 21 lodged a proposed protective order that would permit defendants
22 to file under seal a motion to compel compliance with a subpoena
23 for the medical records of plaintiff Nancy Nien-Li Chiang which 24 was denied by order filed January 5, 2006.

25 The following day, plaintiffs moved ex parte to 26 reconsider my order denying their request to permit defendants'

1 motion be filed under seal. Plaintiffs' motion is granted in 2 part. Defendants shall disclose by filing with the court no
3 private information obtained during discovery solely for the 4 purpose of embarrassing a party or that might embarrass a party
5 and that is not relevant to any factual dispute required to be 6 resolved by the court.

7 So ordered.
